

financial literacy

Find out how you can help low-to-moderate income CT families in your community boost their financial literacy through the Connecticut Money School (CMS) workshops. Financial empowerment workshops include budgeting, applying for credit and loans, opening a bank account, savings, building wealth, and more.

To arrange a CMS workshop for your community visit www.ctmoney.org/librarian

CAHS

CMS is a program of Connecticut Association for Human Services.